

MANY WITNESSES GIVE TESTIMONY IN FRANKS CASE

Grand Jury Will Prob- ably Hear Last Of Evidence Today

CHICAGO, June 4.—A score of witnesses testified today before the grand jury which has been asked to indict Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, university students and sons of two Chicago millionaires, for murder and kidnapping for ransom in connection with the slaying two weeks ago today of Robert Franks, school boy son of another wealthy Chicagoan. It was expected tonight that the last witness will appear tomorrow and that the grand jury will vote then on the state's attorney's request for indictments on the two charges, each punishable by death if convictions are obtained.

Meanwhile the youths who have confessed they kidnapped and killed Robert Franks to obtain excitement and a $10,000 ransom for a trip to Europe were closely guarded in the county jail to prevent possible suicide attempts while members of the state's attorney's staff and detectives investigated their possible connection with the slaying last fall of Freeman Louis Tracy, a university student and the mutilation of Charles Ream, a taxi driver.

Detectives who have been investigating the slaying of Tracy and the attack on Ream were waiting to appear before the grand jury in connection with the Franks case today but asserted that they had found information that may connect the youths with these two crimes. They said they expected to resume their investigation tomorrow.

School Boys Testify
Among those who went before the jury was nine-year old John Levenson, son of a wealthy attorney who played ball with Robert Franks on the playground of the private school both attended on the day the Franks boy vanished and who the state believes was selected as the youths' victim in the first place.

Four university students who had said they knew Leopold had a portable typewriter such as the boys confessed they used to type the ransom demands made of Jacob Franks, father of the slain boy, also appeared before the jury. The typewriter on which the notes were written, according to the boys was thrown in a lagoon and has not yet been recovered.

The man who found the body of Franks stuffed into a culvert on the south-side the day after he disappeared and those who helped him remove the body testified today and Paul Korff, the man who found Leopold's shell-rimmed glasses near the body told his story. It was the spectacles that led to identification of the slayers.

Evidence substantiating the boys' confession was also brought before the grand jury this afternoon. The articles included the chisel with which they said they struck Franks over the head after inducing him to enter their rented car, bloodstained boots worn by Leopold in carrying the body of Franks into the swamp to conceal it, Loeb's trousers with blood stains on them, the blood-stained matting from the rented car, the remains of clothing worn by the victim and remnants of a robe tossed over the youth after he was slain and which the slayers said they later tried unsuccessfully to burn.

Were Blood Spots
In addition the state's attorney received a report from the coroner's chemist that spots found on Leopold's boots and trousers and Loeb's coat had been analyzed as human blood.

Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman today criticized the advisability of allowing prisoners in the county jail to send out after food asserting that close guard was being maintained over the youths but that he feared some means of self-destruction might be smuggled in to them in their food. Attorneys representing the Loeb and Leopold families called at the jail today to confer with their clients but were refused permission to do so. The boys will be brought into court Friday for a final hearing on petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, said that he was not rushing the case before the grand jury as he desired to present every person who knew anything of the case and have them testify under oath to prevent the possibility of their stories being changed later.

MORROW APPOINTED GOVERNMENT COUNSEL
Washington, June 4.—William C. Morrow of Tacoma, Wash., was nominated by President Coolidge today to act as special government counsel in proceedings to assert and establish government title to sections 16 and 36 of naval oil reserve No. 1 located in California.

CHARGES MADE THAT LASKER AND OTHERS HELPED RUIN FLEET

Lissner Claims Money Spent On Steamship Is Un- necessary

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Charges that A. D. Lasker, and others during his administration as chairman of the shipping board had "run down" the government merchant fleet were made by Representative Davis, Democrat, Tennessee, during examination today of Commissioner Lissner in the house shipping investigation.

Commissioner Lissner was under questioning regarding the sale in August, 1923, of the steamship City of Los Angeles to the Los Angeles Steamship company for $100,000 after $2,490,360 had been spent a year before to recondition her in addition to $135,000 expended for other work by the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Drydock company.

Mr. Lissner who testified he was one of three that recommended the sale declared that if he or others on the committee had known the condition of the ship the expenditures would have been held unjustified. He added that the Los Angeles Steamship company had been forced to spend approximately $1,000,000 to repair her since the purchase.

"You all have been running down the fleet ever since you have been in," charged Mr. Davis. The committee decided to cancel its proposed trip to New York between the two political conventions because some of the members have accumulated work to attend to. Several sessions are expected to be held after congress adjourns but Mr. Davis said it had not been definitely decided to hold regular summer sessions, although a sub-committee might be appointed if the latter course was determined upon.

DR. BUTLER EXPRESSES IDEAS OF PLATFORM

NEW YORK, June 4. AP.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University told members of the Manhattan Republican Club in a speech tonight that, if he were to write the Republican national platform it would be confined to twelve or fifteen sharp, crisp sentences taken from the speeches and papers of President Coolidge.

He declared few people read the majority of political platforms and that the country would appreciate a more terse, definite statement on a few public policies.

Dr. Butler advocated the restoration of party responsibility and condemned "a small group calling themselves Republicans, who have no sense of party loyalty and who stand ready to block the policies of the president by making combinations with the minority party."

GREY VETERANS OF LOST CAUSE ENJOY REUNION

Members of Confed- erate Army Guests Of Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 4. AP.—With the first day of their thirty-fourth annual reunion recorded in the history where the land of long, long ago is written, the hosts of the confederacy turned tonight to the gaieties of the reunion which honors the followers of Lee and which marks another milestone along their journey to that eternal camping ground where there is no bivouac and no "lost cause."

The first day of the reunion was a busy one for the old veterans and they returned to their barracks tonight, weary but happy while their sons and daughters and the thousands of reunion guests, attended the ball given by the Sons of Confederate Veterans in an auditorium at the Tri-State Fair Grounds.

Convening at 10 o'clock this morning the old veterans remained in session until mid-afternoon. They heard a number of speeches by men and women who paid glorious tribute to the south and the cause for which they fought. Then hundreds of them climbed into automobiles and followed the bands playing their old war songs in a monster parade of civic organizations, while still other hundreds witnessed the competitive drill of R. O. T. C. cadets in the huge auditorium where the reunion sessions are being held. Then as the sun went down behind the mighty Mississippi they turned their weary foot steps away from the scenes which taxed their strength and pitched their tents on the old camp ground to spend hours with memory's charms and to swap stories of the war days.

The veterans were welcomed to Tennessee and Memphis by Governor Austin Peay and Mayor Rowlette Faine, both sons of confederate veterans, and both of whom recounted the glories of the past and promises of the future. They were greeted by the heads of the allied organizations, meeting here in annual conventions this week.

HINSHAW RESIGNS PROHIBITION OFFICE

COLUMBUS, O., June 4. (AP).—Retirement of Virgil G. Hinshaw for 12 years chairman of the prohibition national committee was announced tonight when that body met preparatory to the national convention of the party tomorrow. Word of the party's chieftain to relinquish his office was brought by J. C. Bell, California member of the committee. He explained that family affairs would prevent Mr. Hinshaw from continuing in office.

Fourteen states were represented at the committee meeting but it was explained other members had been delayed enroute. Members were present from Connecticut, California, Indiana, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and West Virginia.

Aside from expressing regret on the decision of Mr. Hinshaw, the committee session was occupied with a discussion of party finances. This was interrupted by a recess during which the committee members took part in a pre-convention mass meeting.

MRS. BELVA GOETNER MURDER TRIAL BEGINS

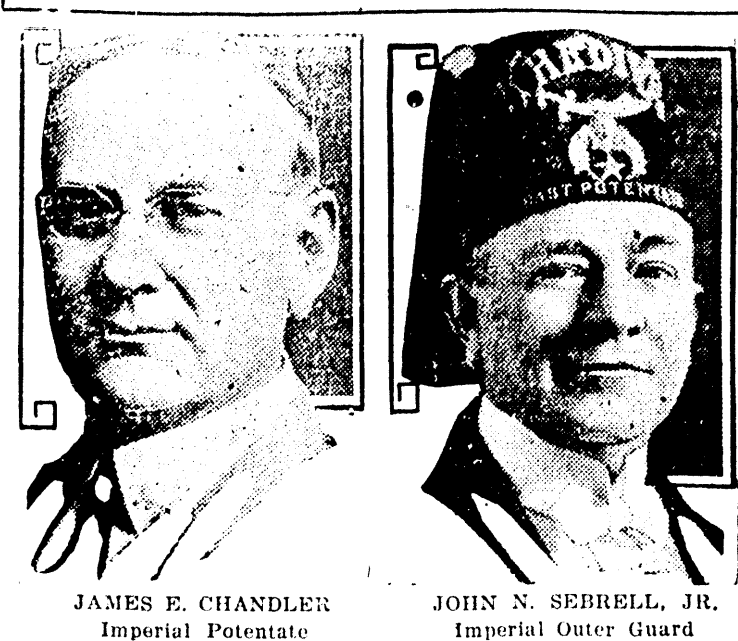

CHICAGO, June 4.—Introduction of a bottle of gin, a revolver containing an exploded shell and clothing of Mrs. Belva Goetner, charged with the murder of Walter Law, automobile salesman, following an alleged gin party, last March, marked the opening of the trial here today following selection of a jury.

The state intends to prove that Mrs. Goetner, described as a pretty divorcee was not intoxicated at the time of Law's death in an automobile owned by the woman and a block from her home. Law was found hanging over a steering wheel of the machine with a bullet wound passing thru the head from the right side to the left. A .32 caliber revolver was found on the floor of the car.

Defense attorneys said Mrs. Goetner and a few character witnesses would be used by them in an effort to prove that the woman did not know of the shooting until after it happened, although she was present when it occurred.

Shriners Elect Officers

Johnson Contestants Win Convention Seats

CLEVELAND, O., June 4.—A letter from the grave suddenly upset the plans of the Republican party managers for cleaning up the long standing factional fight in Georgia and resulted to the seating again of delegates headed by Henry Lincoln Johnson, the negro national committeeman from that state long a stormy petrel before the national conventions.

Just as most of the old line party managers on the committee had decided that Johnson and his delegates must go to make place for those representing the faction formerly headed by J. L. Phillips which had been recognized by officials of the national committee as representing the regular organization in the state, a letter was produced, written by President Harding to C. Bascom Slemp, now secretary to President Coolidge, saying that in recognizing the Phillips faction a blunder had been made and suggested that action be taken to alter the situation.

Charles D. Hilles, committeeman from New York practically forced the production of the letter. It was a trump card for Johnson and the committee voted 22 to 14 to seat his delegates. A substitute motion offered by Joseph B. Keating, committeeman from Indiana, to seat the contesting delegation was rejected by the same vote. Then the committeeman made the vote to seat Johnson's delegates unanimous. The Georgia contests which occupied practically all of today's session was the only enlivening feature of the pre-convention period. The session was alternately noisy, bitter and pathetic.

Johnson as is his custom had charge of the presentation of his own case and for nearly an hour he paced back and forth in front of the committee members combining argument with appeals for consideration for the people of his race and frequently was subjected to a running cross fire of questions from committee men. Often the negro committeeman calling his associates by name, asked them to confirm his statements. At other times, he engaged in sharp exchanges with members of the contesting delegation in which bursts of applause from spectators and gales of laughter in which members of the committee joined.

Dramatically relating a conversation which he said he had with President Harding at the white house before Mr. Harding left for Alaska, Mr. Johnson declared the president had told him that a blunder had been made in recognizing the organization formed at the 1921 Atlanta gathering.

"That has been the blunder of my life," Johnson quoted the president as saying. "I am going to set it right as soon as I get back from Alaska."

Johnson frequently was prompted from the audience by a negro woman.

REPUBLICANS AGREE NO CHANCE TO PASS RELIEF SUBSTITUTE

After Discussion With Presi- dent All Plans Are Abandoned

WASHINGTON, June 4.—After consultation with President Coolidge, Representative Longworth, the Republican leader, conceded tonight there was no possibility of enacting a satisfactory substitute for the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill at this session of congress. During the day Mr. Longworth and Representatives Finch of Kansas and Sanders of Indiana, both members of the Republican steering committee, had discussed with the president a plan they had evolved to place the marketing abroad of surplus wheat, flour and meat products in the hands of the war finance corporation and the word had gone out that if the substitute proved acceptable to the president it would be pressed to a vote as an administrative measure. The announcement that no action would be taken was made after Frank W. Mondell, a war finance corporation director, fresh from a conference with Mr. Coolidge had discussed the situation for more than an hour with Representatives Longworth, Tinchler, Sanders and Sinnott, Republican, Oregon.

No comment was available at the white house as to the president's views and Mr. Mondell declined to discuss the situation.

ROY O. WEST SUCCEEDS GEORGE B. LOCKWOOD

CLEVELAND, O., June 4.—Roy O. West of Chicago has been selected secretary of the Republican national committee to succeed George B. Lockwood who recently announced his determination to quit.

Mr. West is a lawyer and a former member of the Republican national committee. He has long been identified with Republican politics and is widely known in political circles over the country. There has been no decision as yet as to who succeeds Fred W. Upham, Chicago, as treasurer of the committee. Announcement of Mr. Upham's resignation was made yesterday.

COOLIDGE TELLS TYPE NEEDED AS MATE FOR RACE

Wants A Man Who Would Carry Out Policies

CLEVELAND, O., June 4. AP.—President Coolidge has sent direct word to the Republican party managers here describing the type of man he wants for a running mate.

The president's word reaffirms the previous understanding that he wants a man of his own political mind and does not wish the national ticket to represent an attempt to recognize the insurgent wing of the party.

Mr. Coolidge has told those to whom he confided his wishes that the vice-presidential candidate should be a man who could carry an assurance to the country that should he succeed to the presidency there would be no change in the fundamental policies of the administration. With this in mind the party managers who are carefully making a pre-convention canvass of available with the idea of agreeing on a man who will be acceptable to the president and agreeable to the delegates, are continuing to discuss Secretary Hoover and former Governor Lowden of Illinois almost to the exclusion of others who have been mentioned.

Word from Washington today that Senator LaFollette would not be formally placed in nomination for the presidency removal of one of the last possibilities of a touch of an old fashioned convention and left nothing in sight but a ratification meeting.

The fact that all the members of the Wisconsin delegation but one will cast their votes for the Wisconsin senator from the floor, still barred any possibility that Mr. Coolidge would be nominated by acclamation. The substitute platform to be offered by the Wisconsin delegation will present the only semblance of a contest.

Platform builders are having a slow time pending the arrival of Charles B. Warren, American ambassador at Mexico who will be chairman of the resolutions committee. In the meantime thousands of suggestions are pouring in by mail and representatives of various organizations who always swarm around the platform committee door seeking recognition for their ideas and proposals are beginning to arrive on the ground.

Tentative drafts are assuming bulky proportions but there are no indications that the platform in finished form will depart from the fundamental principles of the party.

The foreign relations plank will as usual receive the most attention and be most frequently rewritten. The hardest job in sight for the platform builders is to draft a plank which will harmonize in a party pronouncement the views of the president and some of the senate leaders on the world court.

VOTING ONLY METHOD TO IMPROVE COUNTRY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 4.—Unless patriotic citizens have courage to stand against corruption by voting to repudiate honest government, the United States will go the way of Russia and other countries which have been torn by revolution, United States Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, prosecutor for the senate committee investigating former Attorney General Daugherty declared in an address here today before the City Club.

"I have seen the suffering, the want and the starvation in Russia," Senator Wheeler said. "I followed the revolution which came there because men in high places in government did just the things Harry Daugherty did in this country."

Senator Wheeler asserted there was no politics in the investigation. He said it only happened to be a Republican involved and added he had undertaken a similar prosecution against Democrats while he was district attorney in Montana.

"Corruption," he said, "is the same no matter in which party it is found."

SEVEN ARE HELD FOR ATTACK ON DETECTIVES

Shelbyville, Ill., June 4.—Seven defendants went on trial in the Shelby county circuit court here today charged with riot in connection with an attack on three detectives who had testified regarding alleged bootlegging activities in the county. When the court adjourned today four jurors had been accepted and a special venire of twenty-five men had been called.

The three detectives were assaulted as they came from the court house after indictments against 27 men indicted for liquor law violations had been thrown out because of a technicality.

OFFICERS OF SHRINE ELECTED AND PLACE OF MEETING CHOSEN

Next Caravansary at Los Angeles—Stunt Parade Is Staged

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 4. AP.—With the election of officers today and disposition of other business, including the selection of its 1925 convention meet, by the imperial council of the Shrine of North America, the fifty thousand Nobles of the order assembled here turned to their attention to tonight's picturesque "stunt" parade.

James E. Chandler, of Kansas City, became imperial potentate by action of the council, when he was officially elevated along with the other members of the imperial divan in order of their succession.

John N. Sebrell of Khady Temple, Norfolk, Va., was selected imperial outer guard.

Los Angeles was selected as the 1925 caravansary which will be held May 26-28.

Mr. Chandler succeeds Conrad V. Dykeman, Kismet Temple, Brooklyn, N. Y., who now becomes a past imperial potentate and henceforth has a vote in the imperial council.

All but two of the officers today ascended to higher offices. William S. Brown, Pittsburgh, imperial treasurer, and Benjamin W. Howell, Boston, imperial recorder, were re-elected. They have held their offices by re-election since the Denver Convention in 1894.

The officers of the imperial divan will be installed as the last act of the imperial council tomorrow night.

Immediately on selection of the convention city for next year, invitations for the 1926 convention were extended by Milwaukee and Philadelphia.

Thirty thousand persons gathered in the local ball park today to hear 3,000 musicians, the assembled bands of the Shrine play under the direction of America's king, John Philip Souza.

CONGRESS AGREES TO CURTAIL PROGRAM TO BAREST ESSENTIALS

Is Agreed To Give Muscle Shoals Attention Next Session

WASHINGTON, June 4. AP.—A legislative program stripped to bare essentials for the final days of the present session was agreed upon today by leaders of both parties in congress. Favored measures of influential members were ruthlessly sacrificed in the pruning as developments pointed to much of the time remaining until adjournment at 7 p. m., Saturday being devoted to speeches for the record.

Reclamation and naval modernization held the right of way with farm relief given a permanent place also until house leaders tonight announced that they had abandoned hope of enacting such legislation at this time.

The only routine business in sight is the $150,000,000 deficiency bill and some private pension legislation which are to be acted upon by the senate.

The problem offered by Muscle Shoals was finally solved today when Senator Underwood, Democrat, Alabama, announced an agreement on the part of supporters of the Ford bid to discontinue their first for immediate consideration in return for a preferred position on the calendar of the next session.

Unanimous consent was given to make this question the unfinished business next December 3.

The program approved provides for passage, probably tomorrow in the house as a separate measure of the reclamation relief bill approved by the interior department and its consideration in the senate as a rider on the deficiency bill.

The house disposed of the deficiency bill, which would provide among other things for financing of the soldier bonus and then turned its attention to miscellaneous questions.

THE DAY IN WASHINGTON

House leaders abandoned hope of enacting farm relief legislation at this session.

A deficiency bill to meet the first year's cost of the bonus was passed by the house.

Agreement was reached to postpone the Muscle Shoals fight in the senate to the December session.

Harry M. Daugherty notified the senate investigating committee he would not testify and withdrew his counsel.

LaFollette supporters said that the Wisconsin senator's name would not be formally presented to the Cleveland convention.

Indications pointed toward the selection of Senator Walsh of Montana as permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention.

DAUGHERTY ROW COMES TO HALT FOR SHORT TIME

Former Atty. General Withdraws Legal Assistants

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Former Attorney General Daugherty put an abrupt if perhaps only temporary stop to the storm marked course of the senate investigation of his official conduct, by refusing to appear as a witness and by withdrawing his attorneys who have represented him in the prolonged proceeding. To the last minute the clash of the controversy which has raged almost without cessation during nearly four months of the inquiry resounded, as Paul Howland, Jr., Daugherty's counsel, read the state of his client, charging the members of the senate committee had sought to blacken his reputation and injure his standing, in an inquiry which an Ohio federal court had pronounced an illegal proceeding.

"The silence of the tomb he forever rendered the direct denial of these slanders, impossible," Mr. Daugherty said, "a declaration that he had now during tenure of office 'profited in any illegal, corrupt or unethical way, directly or indirectly.'"

Chairman Brookhart in an immediate denial declared the committee inquiry had proven "the existence of a criminal conspiracy in the 'household' of the former attorney general referring testimony concerning alleged activities of the late Jesse W. Smith. Mr. Daugherty's companion, F. Shober, he said, the committee had shown by tax records that Daugherty on entering office had little property, but that in 1921 he had found evidence of $75,000 cash deposited to his credit in his brother's Ohio bank.

Mr. Daugherty had consistently adopted the policy of accusing his assailants, instead of defending himself from charges, the chairman went on and he cited the indictment in Montana of Senator Wheeler, the committee prosecutor as a "frameup" illustrative of the methods. He promised to urge the committee to present a fair report along the lines of thus laid down.

Senator Moses, Republican New Hampshire, said for the record that he had "some dissent" register to the chairman's opinion.

Senator Wheeler was absent and the session broke up almost without other steps. It will assemble Friday probably for an open hearing, and therefore executive session will consider a future policy.

Probably no other congressional inquiry has been marked by accessory accusations of so drastic and far reaching a nature, those embarked upon in the Daugherty investigation, for addition to a staff of senate employees, Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financier, has lent it the aid of a numerous group of attorneys and investigators organized himself.

Starting in an atmosphere of hostility and with a clear cut decision to take testimony not ways within the judicial rules of evidence, the inquiry called for from Roxie Stinson, a divorcee of Jess W. Smith and Gaston B. Means, former international spy and later department of justice operative, accounts of money payments and "deals" they alleged Smith at least had entered while associated with Mr. Daugherty. A host of other witnesses followed ranging in status from convicts out of the Atlanta federal penitentiary to United States senators.

The facts, accusations, and assertions touching the conduct of the department of justice in Daugherty's administration for the application of the prohibition law through prosecution of frauds, the transportation prize fight motion pictures, the pardon of criminals down the enforcement of neutral laws along the Mexican border.

In three separate proceedings courts have been asked to intervene to block the committee course.

Two Children of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ledford and Mrs. Bailey Rexroat Injured in Runaway Yesterday Afternoon

Three persons were slightly injured about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a runaway which occurred near the C. & A. crossing on the road running past the Jacksonville cemetery. Mrs. J. W. Ledford and two daughters, Ruth Allen and Viola Mae, and Mrs. Bailey Rexroat were driving to the Ledford home northeast of the city. A bolt fell from one of the buggy shafts, frightening the horse. The animal started to run, and the broken shaft caused the buggy to overturn.

Ruth Allen Ledford suffered a fracture of the left arm just above the wrist. Mrs. Rexroat received a severe bruise on the hip and other minor cuts and bruises. Viola Mae Ledford sustained slight cuts and bruises. Mrs. Ledford escaped uninjured.

A passing auto picked up the four victims of the runaway and took them to the office of Dr. W. P. Duncan, who dressed the injuries. All were severely shaken up and suffered somewhat from shock.

BISHOP THIRKIELD IS SPEAKER AT I. W. C.

Address to Graduates of Illinois Woman's College Wednesday Morning—Subject was "Womanhood, Its Pattern and Inspiration."

Bishop of Mexico Heard in Strong Address to Graduates of Illinois Woman's College Wednesday Morning—Subject was "Womanhood, Its Pattern and Inspiration."

"There is no enterprise of splendor or extent that equals the building of a woman." These words opened the Commencement address, one of the finest and most inspirational ever given within the college walls, which was delivered by Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield, of Mexico City, Mexico, yesterday morning at the chapel of the Illinois Woman's College, when Bishop Thirkield spoke on the subject of "Womanhood.—Its pattern and inspiration."

The invocation was given by Reverend C. R. Marshall, and Reverend C. D. Robertson read the scripture. Mayor E. E. Crabtree presided in the absence of Dr. J. R. Harker, introducing the speaker, whose address, given in part, follows:

"God can make a tree, a star, a flower, but He must 'grow' a woman. The first element we must consider, then, in the pattern of womanhood, is her recognition of her own personality, as standing for a high and divine force within the world, and forming the fundamental basis for all modern and religious thinking. Real life does not begin until the soul has looked deep into its own meaning, recognized its nobility, its strength, its personality, and grasped fully the possibilities of that personality."

"Having grasped the powers of her personality, they must be brought under the control of conscience and of reason, and developed through the means of a rounded culture. Education, then, as a means of drawing forth and creating into their highest being the faculties of head and heart and hand; education as a development and endowment of the all powers of the personality is the next experience in the life patterning of woman. The most essential factor in the broadening plan of education is the ennobling power of great friendships. It is not in the contact with books but with the personalities of men, whose great friendships offer an inspiration, a vision, a breadth and nobility of personality, that is found the most enriching endowment of education. Yield your soul to the ennobling power of great personalities, and pattern your life after those of such great women as Frances Willard, Dorothy Dix, Florence Nightingale, the hidden secret of whose power was in the knowledge of their own personalities and their prayers to God."

"The peril of American youth of today is their loss of idealism, and their absorption in mere things. To keep alive the glory and spirit of idealism, to enrich and strengthen your life, and to join hands with the infinite, steep your minds in the works of the great poets, companion yourselves with their deathless passages, that will prove of such inspiration and strength in the darkest hours of life.

At last, endowed with the powers grasped through personality, controlled by the conscience and the reason, ennobled through the contacts of friendship and great personalities, enriched with the companionship of the poets, compel your life into the channel of a lofty and unselfish purpose, which can be realized only through a faith in God."

With the close of Bishop Thirkield's address, the presentation of certificates and the conferring of degrees to the thirty-six graduates took place, with Mayor E. E. Crabtree making the presentation.

How to build up your Weight

Increase your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the sure way. S. S. S. builds Blood-Cells; this means strength!

Only well-developed, healthy men and women enjoy the best in life.

Impower in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power minus red-cells in your blood, and minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You begin to belong a calamity-looking. You begin to feel confident. Your body fills the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. LORD DERBY WINS AFTER 31 YEARS

His Mudhorse, Sansovino, Wins English Derby at Epsom Downs with Weston Up—St. Germain Second

EPSOM DOWNS, England, June 4. (AP)—Lord Derby's "Mudhorse," Sansovino, with Weston up today plowed easily over the historic course of Epsom Downs and finishing six lengths in the lead brought to the sportsman Earl for the first time in his 31 years of striving for the blue ribbon of the world's classic turf event—the 141st renewal of the derby stakes.

Incidentally, the Chestnut colt broke a stretch of 137 years of bad luck for the Derby family, so far as the race they initiated is concerned and which this representative house has been unable to win since the Derby horse, Sir Peter Teazle, scored for the family colors of black and white in 1787.

While the winner's time for the mile and a half course was two minutes, 48 3/5 seconds of 1 1/5 seconds slower than the record it was unusually good when the condition of the course is considered.

Viscount Astor's St. Germain with Bullock up finished in second place, leading Somerville Tattersall's Hurstwood by a neck.

Two American jockeys, O'Neill and Archibald, failed to finish in the running. O'Neill came in eighth on Spalden and Archibald fourteenth on Redisano, the king's entry. Donoghue, who won golden spurs with his third consecutive triumph with Papyrus last year brought up among the also rans.

GOLF BLEACHERS AT TITLE MATCHES

Host Club To American and British Amateur Teams Plans to Introduce Innovation This Fall

By Joe Williams
The matter of handling the gallery at championship matches has become one of the most perplexing problems in golf. Where 20 years ago, galleries rarely exceeded hundreds, they now mount into thousands. And as the game is becoming increasingly popular it is conceivable that the problem will take on added complexities in coming years.

Ropes, Ray Scouts and prayers make up the main ingredients of the system now in use. At best, it is a hit-and-miss system, but one which evolves a better one it probably will have to stand.

In this connection we note that the Garden City Club, in the metropolitan district, where the American and British amateur teams clash in the Walker Cup matches next fall, plans to build a grandstand facing the eighth green.

This stand, big enough to accommodate 1,500 people, would be the first stand ever used in golf.

Naturally, the view of the spectators would be restricted to activities developing within a limited zone; but then the home green is usually productive of plenty of excitement. It certainly was in the two big championships last summer.

Bobby Cruikshank tied Bobby Jones in the open at Inwood on the home green with the most dramatic iron shot of the year, and it was on the home green in the amateur at Flossmoor that caddy Sweeter dropped a curling down-hill putt for a half against Max Marston when the Yale man appeared hopelessly beaten.

It would have been worth anybody's time to sit for hours in the stands to see either of these finishes.

The stand idea might be carried further than the proposed Garden City arrangement. On every course almost is a certain point of vantage from which play at four or five holes may be observed.

A sizable stand could be erected on a slope, supplementing the main stand at the eighteenth green, and while this might not be entirely satisfactory it would at least minimize the number of pop-eyed layway rovers who just must see every shot.

DEMPSEY MAY NOT FIGHT THIS YEAR

Rickard's Plans Call for Elimination Match Between Luis Firpo and Harry Wills on August 20

NEW YORK, June 4.—Jack Dempsey will not defend his heavyweight crown this year if Tex Rickard goes thru with his plans for a match between the titleholder's two outstanding rivals, Luis Angel Firpo of the Argentine and Harry Wills, giant negro.

This was disclosed today by the promoter who explained that inability to sign Firpo for a match with Wills before August 20 precluded the possibility of arranging a championship contest for the winner with Dempsey.

Rickard, however, said he might abandon the Wills-Firpo contest for long-awaited title bout between the negro and Dempsey as the outstanding heavyweight attraction of the year. The promoter asserted he had determined to stage only one major match but as yet has not decided which to conduct.

Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey denied reports that the champion's motion picture engagement, said to involve $1,000,000 would prevent him from defending his title in the ring before 1925.

"Our movie contract does not interfere with the champion's ring activities," Rickard will hold either the Wills-Firpo or the Wills-Dempsey fight in his Jersey City bowl, Boyle's Thirty Acres, probably on Saturday, September 6th.

PRESS IS SWAMPED BY CAPPS TEAM

Take Wednesday Night Game by Score of 10 to 0—Woodman's Error Costly—Dokays and Merchants Friday.

Last night on the I. S. D. field Capps' team trimmed the Press team by a score of 10 to 0. White pitching for the Press was hit hard by the Capps' players for a total of 10 hits, while Henderson pitching his second game in two days allowed the Press team two hits and no runs.

The Capps' team have a hard hitting aggregation, their fielding is good, and they are going strong. In the first inning Woodman at first made an error that let in three runs and was the start of the Press downfall.

Gebert made a wonderful catch on second and Goodwill at first played his usual snappy game. This makes the third win for Capps' team over the Press scoring only one run in all three games.

A crowd, larger than usual witnessed the contest, Friday night the Dokays meet the Merchants.

A HOT WEATHER FRIEND THE ELECTRIC IRON

It's no fun for any woman to swing a heavy iron from stove to board—especially in hot weather.

Why not an electric iron which requires no swinging, no hot stove heating and saves much time and energy—a real hot weather friend. From $4.50 to $6.75—is the price, within reach of every family.

MANAGER SMITH HAS SIGNED NEW UMPS

Manager Frank Smith of the Jacksonville Indians has announced the release of Umpire Kent and the signing of Umpire McCool of Winchester for the remainder of the season. He also has announced that the price at the gate has now been placed at fifty cents with the grand stand and all seats free.

Word has been received that the Roodhouse Nationals have been disbanded for the season and Freddy Hartman of Springfield has taken over the team and will play road games the rest of the summer. This team will appear here one week from Sunday in place of the Illinois Giants who will come directly after the Fourth of July. On next Sunday afternoon the Vinton Slovaks will be the attraction, and as they trimmed the Indians last season a tight game is anticipated.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Junior Club University Tour—
The club leaders at the College of Agriculture would like to have every boys and girls club represented on this tour June 12 and 13. The University authorities are providing cheap lodging, meals and a free program.

A. A. Statisticians Here—J. C.
Watson of the U. S. A. is making a brief study of the tax situation in Morgan County. He came out in connection of the executive committee of the farm bureau to see whether the taxation of farm lands is out of line with that of town and city property.

Combined Garden Spray—The amateur gardener can make a combined spray that will kill practically all insects and prevent the most of diseases of garden vegetables. Add to one gallon of water 3 level teaspoons of lead arsenate, 5 level teaspoonful of boric acid, and 12 teaspoonful of kerosene.

Why Soils Become Sour—Soils become acid principally because of the following reasons: first,
limestone leaches out and is lost thru drainage; second, growing crops remove limestone; third, limestone is destroyed by neutralization thru the decomposition of organic matter.

Want 90 Day Corn—Inquiries are coming in for 90 day corn for replanting purposes. This type of corn is not extensively grown in Morgan County and any farmer with a supply of dependable seed will help his fellow farmer
by notifying the farm bureau office.

Sow Thick and Thin—If you want a good stand of garden vegetables follow the following suggestion: As soon as the plants are well started thin out less thirty and seven thirty where crowded. This will enable you to produce a fine quality of garden produce.

Rock Phosphate—The limited buying power of phosphate users has almost paralyzed the production of raw rock. This season the material is costing $6.00 per ton at the mines. Freight to this county is $4.25 per ton in carlots.
Those who have had experience are strongly in favor of paying more per ton and having it come in sacks.

NEW BILL PROVIDES INCOME TAX REDUCTION

Reduction of 25 Per Cent Provided By New Revenue Bill Now in Effect—One-half of Tax Must be Paid by June 15.

The new Revenue bill which provides for a reduction of income tax, is now in effect. It provides for a reduction of 25 percent of the amount of tax shown to be due on income tax returns filed by individuals for the year 1923. If you have paid three-fourths of the amount of tax due on your return, no further payment will be due. If at the time you filed your return you paid at least one-half of the tax, no further payment will be due until September 15th. If at the time you filed your return you paid only one-fourth of the tax due, you must pay on or before June 15, not less than one-half the amount you paid when you filed your return. The main point to remember is that at least one-half of the amount of tax due from you this year must be paid on or before June 15th.

persons who paid their income tax this year in full, at the time of filing their return, they are advised that the Internal Revenue Bureau will doubtless take early action toward providing a proper adjustment of such cases.

The purpose of this article is to inform taxpayers as to the proper amount of tax they should remit to the collector's office on or before June 15th in the event they are taking advantage of the installment plan of payment.

The plan may be stated in a mere simple way as follows: Subtract 25 percent of the tax as originally figured, from such original tax, and see to it that at least one-half of the remainder has been paid on or before June 15th.

THRU MURRAYVILLE

Announcement has been made that the state department of highways has consented to a change in the route of the hard road from Jacksonville south to the county line, which will put the hard road through Murrayville's main street. This was brought about by efforts of Murrayville business men and citizens, after the road had been routed through the western edge of the village.

When it was learned by the county commissioners that the Murrayville citizens desired the route to be changed they began working diligently to have the change made. The change in the route will require the moving or wrecking of several buildings and it has been announced that these are for sale.

AGED WAVERLY FARMER
MEETS DEATH IN WELL

Edward Schofield Is Found in Well Yesterday Morning Where He Had Jumped Head First

Edward Schofield, aged 67, was found dead in a tile well on his farm three miles southwest of Waverly, yesterday morning. The body was discovered after members of the family and neighbors had searched all night, when the decedent failed to appear after doing chores in the evening. It is reported that Schofield had been acting queerly for several days.

The Waverly man worked in the fields as usual Tuesday and did his chores in the evening. He then made a trip to the barn lot and disappeared. Failure to return to the residence caused alarm among the members of the family.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening a search of the fields was conducted but it was not until his hat was found hanging on a post that the searchers had any idea as to what became of him. A search of the well which is located near the post on which his hat was found hanging revealed the body of the aged farmer. The well is nine feet deep and he had gone down head first.

Coroner C. A. Rose of this city conducted an inquest yesterday morning and the jury rendered a verdict of "drowning, with suicide intent from sliding into a sewer well, located on his farm."

The first to testify at the inquest was Wayne McMahon, who told of finding the decedent's hat on a fence post and of helping to remove the body from the well. Joseph Lomelino also testified to practically the same facts.

The coroner's jury was composed of E. R. Criswell, R. N. Reed, Ralph Withee, Henry White, James Henderson and James M. Miller.

As soon as every troop has selected a candidate, the Scout Council Court of Honor will meet and choose from among them by competitive processes the lad who will represent Jacksonville at the Culver school. JACKSONVILLE LOSES
TWO ALTON HUMMERS

Time Card Which Becomes Effective Saturday Night Routes Fast Trains Over Air Line Thru Springfield.

Announcement has been made of a new time card on the Chicago & Alton railroad, which goes into effect at midnight Saturday night. When the new card becomes effective Jacksonville sustains the loss of two trains, which have added much to the convenience of the citizens, numbers 9 and 10 the north and south bound Hummers.

These two trains will be routed through Springfield instead of Jacksonville the officials of the road explaining that the main line and Air line is about twenty minutes faster than via the Jacksonville division, and there is also the advantage of the double track, between Bloomington and Springfield. Train 9 the Hummer southbound will leave Chicago at 8 p. m. instead of 6 p. m., which has been the time for twenty years, and will make the run to Bloomington without a stop reaching Springfield at 11:59 p. m. No. 10 the Hummer northbound, will leave Springfield at 1:10 a. m., reaching Chicago at 8:10 a. m., the scheduled time north being four hours.

The change in the routing has been made in order to compete with the Santa Fe Chicago to Kansas City service, the new route as indicated being made in faster time. It has also been stated that another reason for the change is because many Jacksonville people drive to Springfield to take the Chicago train.

While this new time card becomes effective Saturday, city officials and the Chamber of Commerce will continue to work for the rerouting of the train thru this city, as the same change was made a few years ago only to be changed back again.
